(LOS ANGELES, CA) May 10, 2008 -- Lucid by Proxy presents the World Premier of Jeanette Scherrer's new play about the affects of the Iraq War on the families of soldiers, "March On, Dream Normal."

WHAT:

"March On, Dream Normal" depicts the struggle to restore a family damaged by wars a generation apart. Jim has recently returned home to Missouri, but he's haunted by nightmares of what he had to do to survive in Iraq. His father, whose brother served in Vietnam, recognizes the signs of PTSD in his son, but he's unequipped to stop Jim's downward spiral. The beautiful quilts that Jim's mother makes provide some comfort for Jim and his family, but in truth they offer feeble protection against the devastating psychological aftermath of war.
